ITINERARY

08:00: MEET AT THE MEETING POINT

Pick up at the meeting point and transfer to the costa brava.

10:00: START OUR WALKING ROUTE AT PALAMOS

The route starts in the fisherman town of Palamós; it crosses some beautiful "Calas" like "Cala Margarida", where you can still find some old fishermen's huts. From there, we'll climb a small mountain (72mts), where you'll enjoy the view of steep cliffs. After that, you'll directly go to La Fosca beach, where we'll find the ruins of a medieval castle, we'll cross a Mediterranean pine area and you'll reach some fishing barracks (which are original from XVI century).

We'll continue our route and arrive at Castell Beach, a natural scenery of great beauty that has been used as a hotspot for many films. From here, we enter in another space dominated by forests of oaks and pines. Right at the start of the climb, we find the Iberian settlement of VI century BC, under the hidden cave of La Foradada (a natural rock tunnel that allows navigation inside for small boats).

12:30: PICNIC LUNCH & BATH

We'll walk from cove to cove along the sand, starting in a nudist area, and ending in Formigues Island, where in the XIII Century the Catalan Navy, commanded by Roger de Llúria defeated the French Navy. There, we will have a bath and a picnic lunch.

16:30: END OF THE ROUTE AT PALAMOS

After a bath and our picnic lunch, we'll start our coming back to Palamòs this time crossing a Pine trees forest.

18:30: BACK TO THE MEETING POINT IN BARCELONA

Pick up in Palamòs and transfer to our meeting point in Barcelona.
